WINTER 2003

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

We were delighted to welcome over 20 new students this term. Everyone seems to have settled down well, focusing and working hard - keep it up! - especially with assessments approaching next term.

Have a really happy Christmas and New Year. See you in 2004.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

This year's Scholarship Audition was adjudicated by Michael Woodwark and the audition teacher was Paul

Cheryl Rosenthal, Katie Charlton, Michael Woodwark and Danielle Peazer

Watson. Michael Woodwark commented on the high standard of dancing. Congratulations go to Katie Charlton who was awarded a full scholarship and to Danielle Peazer and Cheryl Rosenthal who were awarded half-scholarships. Katie Charlton is taught at Dance Consortium in Tunbridge Wells, Cheryl Rosenthal is taught at the Carol Kristian Theatre School in Rickmansworth and Danielle is taught at the Dance Studio in Winchmore Hill.

NUTCRACKER

Kevin Richmond is performing in Nutcracker as Doctor Drosselmeyer with the English National Ballet at the Appollo Hammersmith and LJB student Sam Chung is dancing the roles of Bon-Bon, Rat and Suitcase.

Annabelle Dalling, the LJB Pilates teacher is performing as Mrs Dross in the Matthew Bourne Nutcracker production at the Sadler's Wells.

CONTEMPORARY

The Contemporary classes have been a great success. From January 2004 these classes (open to 3HC and 4NB students) will take place every week.

LAST DAY OF THE SUMMER TERM

London Studio Centre have kindly agreed to let us use the De Valois Studio on the 10th July. Instead of having our usual watching day I am planning a presentation morning which will enable students and parents to watch all the classes.
